

Boosting Economic Democracy: the theory behind the practice

Online seminar

25 January 2024
15:00-17:00 CET

AGENDA

- 15:00-15:05 WELCOME REMARKS
Anna Kolesnichenko, Policy Analyst on Economics, FEPS
- 15:05-15:20 SESSION 1: WHAT IS ECONOMIC DEMOCRACY - ITS FEATURES AND MECHANISMS
- Presentation of the draft study on Economic Democracy by the team of researchers from the University of Glasgow: Dr. Andrew Cumbers (Professor of Political Economy), Dr. Karen Bilsland (Lecturer in Organisational Behaviour) and Dr. Robert McMaster (Professor of Political Economy)
- 15:20-15:50 Comments and discussion
- Input by:
David Ellerman, President and Co-founder, Institute for Economic Democracy
- Moderator: Dr. Andrew Cumbers, Professor of Political Economy, University of Glasgow
- 15:50-16:50 SESSION 2: EXAMPLES OF ECONOMIC DEMOCRACY IN DIFFERENT DOMAINS - HOW TO TRANSFER POWER AND IMPLEMENT CHANGE
- Reema Patel, Research Director, IPSOS
- Sarah McKinley, Director of Community Wealth Building Programs, Democracy Collaborative
Input on community wealth building
- Christopher Mackin, Founder, Ownership Associates
Input on employee ownership
- Lavinia Steinfort, Project Coordinator and Researcher, Transnational Institute (TNI)
- Moderator: Anna Kolesnichenko, Policy Analyst on Economics, FEPS
- 16:50-17:00 CLOSING REMARKS
Dr. Christophe Sente, Université Libre de Bruxelles and FEPS Scientific Council