

Dear Friends,

We cordially invite you to our event entitled POPULISM AND WOMEN, organized by the European Center for Progressive Studies (FEPS) and the Táncsics Foundation, and supported by the Max van Der Stoel Foundation, as well as the subsequent International Women's Day For commemoration and award ceremony.

Draft program:

DATE: 2024. March 8 (Friday) 10.00 a.m. – 2.00 p.m

VENUE: Villányi Road Conference Center room 300
Address: 1147 Budapest, Villányi út 11-13.

PROGRAM

From 9.30 Arrival - Registration

10.00 Populism and women

Greetings: Dr. Zita Gurmai FEPS VP

Speaker: Dr. István Hiller, president of the Táncsics Foundation

10.15 Gender equality in right-wing authoritarian systems - the case of Serbia and Hungary - presentation of research

Moderator: Deputy Mayor Kata Tüttö, leader of the MSZP EP list

Speakers: András Pulai, managing director of the Publicus Institute, strategy director, Tamara Tripic Democratic Dialogue Network Chair of the Board

Katarzyna Ueberhan, Member of Polish Parliament representing the constituency of Poznań and VP of the Nowa Lewica Parliamentary Group.

11.15 Women's employment in Europe

Speaker: Nicolas Schmit is the Commissioner for Employment of the European Commission (video message)

11.30 Coffee break

12.00 International Women's Day Celebration and Award Ceremony

Greeting: Imre Komjáthi, co-chairman of MSZP

Award ceremony

13.30 Closing remarks: Ágnes Kunhalmi, co-president of MSZP

We look forward to seeing you all! In the first part of the event, simultaneous interpretation is provided.

Budapest, February 20, 2024

Dr. Zita Gurmai
Vice President of FEPS

Dr. István Hiller
President of the Táncsics Foundation